

Julie Katigan

Executive Vice President & Chief Human Resource Officer

As the Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resource Officer for Perdue Farms, Julie Katigan leads the company's people strategy—ensuring associates are engaged, supported, and inspired to thrive. Her leadership role spans all aspects of human resources, including talent acquisition and management, organizational and leadership development, inclusion and belonging, total rewards, and associate well-being.

Julie plays a central role in shaping Perdue's culture, fostering an environment where associates can do meaningful work aligned with the company's values of quality, integrity, teamwork, and stewardship. Her approach emphasizes authenticity, collaboration, and purpose—helping to ensure Perdue remains an employer of choice across its diverse operations.

Julie earned her B.A. in English and her Master's of Labor & Industrial Relations, both from Michigan State University.

Prior to joining Perdue, Julie held senior leadership roles with several global companies, including Colfax Corporation, Electrolux, Mead Johnson Nutrition, and Ford Motor Company. Throughout her career, she has been recognized for building inclusive, high-performing teams and for advancing people-centered strategies that drive both business success and personal growth.
