

Gregg Uecker Chief Supply Chain and Operations Officer

As Chief Supply Chain and Operations Officer, Gregg Uecker has responsibility for the end-to-end Supply Chain functions for Perdue Foods. This includes Live Production, Plant Operations, Transportation, Warehousing, Order Fulfillment, Customer Service, Food Safety/Quality Assurance, Procurement, and Engineering.

Uecker joined Perdue Farms in September 2023 from CJ Schwan's, where he was the Executive Vice President of Global Supply Chain.

Prior to CJ Schwan's, Uecker spent more than 30 years with Tyson Foods in key senior leadership roles such as Senior Vice President of Operations and Supply Chain - Prepared Foods, Senior Vice President of Supply Chain Strategy, Senior Vice President/General Manager of Processed Meats, Senior Vice President/General Manager of Animal Feed and Ingredients, and Vice President of Operations. Other positions earlier in his career include stints in Operations, Engineering, Continuous Improvement, Maintenance Management, and Supply Chain Business Process Design.

Uecker graduated from the University of South Dakota in Vermillion, South Dakota with a degree in chemistry with an emphasis in business administration.

